BIOGRAPHY OF MAULANA QARI MOHAMMAD AHSAN MOHSIN QASMI

Maulana Qari Mohammad Ahsan Mohsin Qasmi (born 5 September 1964) is an Indian Islamic scholar, Urdu poet, Naat reciter, author, educationist, spiritual mentor, and social worker from Muzaffarnagar, Uttar Pradesh, India. Despite losing his eyesight completely at the age of three due to smallpox, he dedicated his life to Islamic education, Urdu literature, spirituality, and humanitarian service, becoming an inspiration for persons with disabilities.

He memorized the Holy Quran at an early age and later graduated from the prestigious Darul Uloom Deoband, one of the world's leading Islamic educational institutions. Despite complete blindness, he completed his entire education without using Braille, relying on listening, memorization, and extraordinary determination.

Maulana Qari Mohammad Ahsan Mohsin Qasmi is a Khalifa (authorized spiritual successor) of four eminent Islamic scholars: Hazrat Shah Mufti Muzaffar Hussain (Rahimahullah), Hazrat Maulana Mohammad Salim Qasmi (Rahimahullah), Hazrat Maulana Qamruzzaman Allahabadi (Damat Barakatuhum), and Hazrat Maulana Najmul Hasan Thanvi (Damat Barakatuhum). Under their spiritual guidance and mentorship, he has devoted his life to the promotion of Islamic education, spiritual reform, Urdu literature, Naat recitation, and community service. Their teachings have profoundly influenced his scholarly, literary, and humanitarian contributions.

Following his graduation, he devoted himself to Urdu literature and Islamic scholarship. He began composing original Urdu poetry, Hamd, Naat, and reformative literary works that emphasize faith, morality, peace, compassion, and social harmony.

He is the author of several books, including:
- Aap Ke Paigham Ki Khushboo
- Naqoosh-e-Mohsin
- Jalwa-e-Mohsin-e-Kainat
- Gulzar-e-Mohsin
- Naghmaat-e-Mohsin

These literary works have now been compiled into a comprehensive 320-page volume titled "Jalwa-e-Baseerat", preserving his lifelong literary contributions.

Known for his melodious voice and inspiring style of Naat recitation, Maulana Qasmi has delivered religious lectures, literary presentations, and Naat recitals throughout India and internationally, including South Africa. His programmes have been highly appreciated for promoting Urdu literature, Islamic values, peace, and moral education.

As an educationist and social worker, he established two free educational institutions:

- Jamia Qasimul Uloom (UDISE Code: 09020303814)
- Khadijatul Kubra Lil Banat (UDISE Code: 09020303810)

These institutions provide free education to children from economically weaker sections of society and reflect his lifelong commitment to educational empowerment and community service.

To reach a wider audience, he actively uses digital platforms. Through his official YouTube channel, he shares poetry, Naat recitations, lectures, and motivational messages with audiences across India and around the world. His contributions on digital media have earned him the YouTube Silver Creator Award and appreciation from viewers globally.

Throughout his career of more than four decades, he has received numerous certificates, appreciation letters, shields, and honours from educational, literary, religious, and social organisations in India and abroad for his outstanding contributions to literature, education, and social service.

Despite complete visual impairment, Maulana Qari Mohammad Ahsan Mohsin Qasmi transformed his disability into a lifelong mission of knowledge, faith, creativity, and service. His remarkable journey demonstrates that determination, education, and sincere dedication can overcome physical limitations.

Today, he continues to promote Islamic education, Urdu literature, Naat recitation, moral values, and social welfare through his writings, public lectures, educational institutions, and digital platforms. His life remains a source of inspiration for students, scholars, poets, and persons with disabilities across the world.
